

Sinclair Broadcasting's plans to air a program called "Silent Honor" just weeks before this year's presidential election is a blatant example of media and partisian politics gone amok!!

There is nothing of public interest in this corporation's order to affiliate stations. When any of their licenses are up for renewal serious consideration should be given before sanctioning a corporation such as this.

Thank you.